Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (See the instructions.)

Form 990 is available for public inspection and, for some people, serves as the primary or sole source of information about a particular organization. How the public perceives an organization in such cases may be determined by the information presented on its return. Therefore, please make sure the return is complete and accurate and fully describes, in Part III, the organization's programs and accomplishments.

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose? ► FEDERATION OF LABOR UNIONS	Program Service Expenses (Required for 501(c)(3) and (4) orgs., and 4947(a)(1) trusts; but optional for others.)
All organizations must describe their exempt purpose achievements in a clear and concise manner. State the number of clients served, publications issued, etc. Discuss achievements that are not measurable. (Section 501(c)(3) and (4) organizations and 4947(a)(1) nonexempt charitable trusts must also enter the amount of grants and allocations to others.)

#53-0228172

STATEMENT 14

Part III - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

The AFL-CIO is a federation of affiliated national and international labor unions, trade and industrial departments, state and local central bodies and directly affiliated local unions. The AFL-CIO engages in a wide range of activities on behalf of its affiliates and their members. These activities are designed to improve the lives of working families – to bring economic justice to the workplace and social justice to our nation. The AFL-CIO seeks to build a broad movement of American workers by organizing workers into unions, and to provide a voice for workers' interests on the job, in their communities, at all levels of government, and in the changing global economy.

STATEMENT 15

Part VIII - Relationship of Activities to the Accomplishment of Exempt Purposes

- 93a - Publication of the AFL-CIO's America@Work disseminates information to interested subscribers about international, national, state and local labor-related activities and issues.
- 93b - Sales of labor-related supplies to individuals or organizations involved in the labor movement.
- 93c - Reimbursement of expenses for services provided to other affiliated exempt organizations in furtherance of labor-related activities.
- 93d - Affiliated organizations' contributions for get out the vote drive.
- 94 - "Members", more correctly termed "affiliates", are national and international labor unions, trade and industrial departments, state and local central bodies and directly affiliated local unions. The AFL-CIO engages in a wide range of activities on behalf of its affiliates and their members. These activities are designed to improve the lives of working families – to bring economic justice to the workplace and social justice to our nation. The AFL-CIO seeks to build a broad movement of American workers by organizing workers into unions, and to provide a voice for workers' interests on the job, in their communities, at all levels of government, and in the changing global economy.
- 103a - Miscellaneous receipts and reimbursements for services or materials provided or expenses incurred by the AFL-CIO in carrying out its exempt purpose.
- 103b & c - Royalties earned for use of the Federation's intangible property in connection with third party's provision of credit card and other financial service products for the benefit of union members, excluded by IRC section 512(b)(2).
