Alcan Announces Annual $1 Million Award to Support Sustainability

The Alcan Prize for Sustainability is a $1 million prize to be awarded each year to a nonprofit, civil society, or non-governmental organization, based anywhere in the world, for its contributions to economic, environmental, and/or social sustainability. The prize recognizes past performance and helps winning organizations continue to contribute to and impact on sustainability through their ongoing activities.

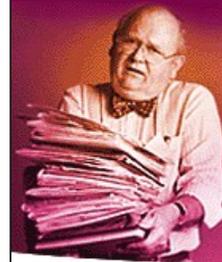

An international panel of distinguished judges, chaired by José-Maria Figueres, Co-CEO of the World Economic Forum and former president of Costa Rica, will select an annual winner. The closing date for entries is March 31st, 2004. For entry details and requirements, please visit www.alcanprizeforsustainability.com.
