Employees have an obligation to avoid all conflicts of interest and to refer questions and concerns about potential conflicts to the Senior Vice President of Finance and Operations. Employees are not to engage in, directly or indirectly, any conduct which is disloyal, disruptive, competitive or damaging to the Council. Employees must disclose any financial interest they or their immediate family have in any firm which does business with the Council or which competes with the Council. The Council may require divestiture of such interest if it deems the interest to be in conflict with its best interests. Employees are prohibited from misusing such material inside information prior to public disclosure by purchasing or selling member-owned property or securities for their own account or for accounts of members of their immediate family. Further, employees are not to disclose inside information to anyone, either inside or outside the Council who does not have a legitimate need to know. All employees should avoid personal activities or involvement which may result in personal benefit and thus create or appear to create a conflict with their responsibility and loyalty to the Council.
