CHARTING IMPACT

What is the organization aiming to accomplish?

We envision a just society in which everyone, regardless of national origin, has basic human rights including livelihood, family unity, self-determination, and physical and emotional safety.

ICDI provides housing, goods, and services to asylum seekers in Illinois to prepare them for independent living.

What are the organization's key strategies for making this happen?

1: ICDI promotes an end to poverty by helping to prevent homelessness and poverty for asylum seekers through our housing and case management programs.

3: ICDI promotes good health and wellbeing within the people we serve through our case management services. We facilitate participants medical, dental and mental health services through our Housing and Case Management programs.

16: ICDI promotes peaceful and inclusive societies through our Housing and Case Management programs by offering an alternative to unjust and inhumane immigration detention.

What are the organization's capabilities for doing this?

Our capabilities for promoting the three aforementioned sustainable development goals are established through our years of doing the housing work, a devoted staff including case managers, mentor teams to support our participants, community partnerships and of course, donors. For nearly 11 years, ICDI has offered housing for asylum seekers and mentor teams that support them. Mentors support residents in housing by driving them to doctor's appointments or taking them grocery shopping. Our case managers are also a lifeline for our participants by connecting them with medical, dental, mental health and job/school preparation services. We also have close relationships with The Chicago School, the Kovler Center for the Treatment of Survivors of Torture, Howard Brown Health Center, a local dentist and Cook County that allow us to help our participants. Financial support from our donors also make us capable of doing the work we do.

What have and haven't they accomplished so far?

ICDI serves through three programs:

1) ICDI's Welcome and Essentials Team

"Sharing goods with newcomers, providing for their needs."

This team meets migrants at: the Greyhound Bus Station, the Chicago police stations where migrants must await shelter placement, at the tent cities that have sprung up as the police stations are full, and in the city's shelters. This team provides essential goods from two warehouses where clothing and personal items are gathered and stored.

2) ICDI's Housing Team

"Empowering communities to receive newcomers, providing safe places."

This team works with the community to provide safe and healthy places to live. The wrap-around care that ICDI housing offers is provided by community volunteers, trained mentors, and ICDI's Case Management Team.

3) ICDI's Case Management Team

“Establishing a foothold for newcomers, providing support for self-sufficiency.”

This team provides trauma-informed care to all participants, and helps them: enroll in public benefits, enroll children in public school, secure necessary appointments (medical, mental health, educational, and legal etc.), provides access to all available community resources including mutual aid and transportation.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Ed Pratt

LinkedIn profile

Ed's favorite part of his job is telling the ICDI stories and inviting people to join in the work of saving and improving lives. He holds a Doctorate in Organizational Development. Before joining ICDI, Ed worked in consulting with not-for-profit organizations for fundraising. Ed is inspired by Mr. Rogers, who he describes as one of his heroes and was "smart, gentle, kind, strong, and patient". When asked, "Why ICDI?" Ed asks you to imagine giving up everything (family, home, land, job, education) and leaving your homeland because it is no longer safe. ICDI helps those in such circumstances. People come seeking safety, hoping and leaning into the values we profess as a country. When they arrive here, we treat them like criminals and place them in jail.

* The Foundation Status Code is the code that foundations are required to provide for each grantee annually on part XV of Form 990PF. Note that this code cannot be derived in some cases (e.g., supporting organizations for which 'type' can't be determined).

IRS Revenue Procedure 2011-33 allows grantors to rely on third-party resources, such as GuideStar Charity Check, to obtain required Business Master File (BMF) data concerning a potential grantee's public charity classification under section 509 (a) (1), (2) or (3).

GuideStar Charity Check Data Sources

- GuideStar acquires all IRS data directly from the Internal Revenue Service.
- The IRS Automatic Revocation of Exemption List contains organizations that have had their federal tax-exempt status automatically revoked for failing to file an annual return or notice with the IRS for three consecutive years.
- IRS Publication 78 \(Cumulative List of Organizations\) lists organizations that have been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as eligible to receive tax-deductible contributions.
- The Foundation Status Code is a value derived by mapping the codes found on the 990PF filing instructions to the corresponding codes in the IRS BMF. Note that not all codes are able to be mapped due to insufficient data.
- The IRS Internal Revenue Bulletin (IRB) lists changes in charitable status since the last Publication 78 release. Between the release of IRS Publication 78 and the subsequent IRS Internal Revenue Bulletin, the IRB date will reflect the most recent release date of IRS Publication 78.
- The Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) Specially Designated Nationals \(SDN\) list organizations that are owned or controlled by targeted individuals, groups, and entities, such as terrorists or narcotics traffickers. Their assets are blocked and U.S. persons are generally prohibited from dealing with them.
- The IRS Business Master File lists approximately 1.7 million nonprofits registered with the IRS as tax-exempt organizations.
