CHARTING IMPACT

What is your organization aiming to accomplish?
Through the DAV Charitable Service Trust, charitable organizations receive the financial support needed to build capacity, expand on services provided, and ultimately, increase the impact made on countless veterans and/or military families as they navigate the challenges of life after combat. While the nature of funded programs vary significantly from year to year, many of the supported initiatives provide the services needed to stabilize homeless at-risk veterans struggling to establish suitable employment and/or housing, in addition to challenges associated with declining physical health. What are your strategies for making this happen?

Recognizing that veterans of all backgrounds can benefit from services catered to their unique experiences with the military, the DAV (Disabled American Veterans) Charitable Service Trust partners with an increasingly large number of charitable organizations to ensure that veterans of both the aging and newly returned eras; rural and urban regions; and other distinctions have access to programming for enrichment. In doing so, the Trust has maintained a single, primary program since its initiation: the DAV Charitable Service Trust Grant Program. Each year, thousands of ill and injured veterans through a variety of grants to other not-for-profit entities. In doing so, the Trust ensures that funds distributed are well-accounted for through the review of timely accountability reports from grant recipients. Each granted organization is required to submit detailed reports and fund expenditure outlines approximately every six months until a balance of $0 is reported and confirmed. Timely reports must be received and specific criteria met for a given organization to know if you are making progress? How will your organization know if you are making progress?

Undoubtedly, the DAV (Disabled American Veterans) Charitable Service Trust has managed generous gifts with ongoing dedication and controlled spending. As evidence of its sound fiscal management, more than 96 cents out of every dollar went directly to support programs and services for veterans and their families in 2018. The Trust also boasted more than $28 million in Net Assets which demonstrates its strong financial position. Further, the Trust recently received the coveted 4-star rating for "sound fiscal management and commitment to accountability and transparency" from Charity Navigator. What are your organization’s capabilities for doing this?

The DAV (Disabled American Veterans) Charitable Service Trust has administered a nation-wide grant program to ensure that other not-for-profit entities have the resources to provide a number of services and programs for ill and injured veterans and their families. As a well-known grantmaker to an increasing volume of recipients each year, the Trust has been able to support programs that meet a wide variety of needs among the military community. Notably, a full 96% of our 2018 total expenses went directly to service programs for our ill and injured veterans and only 4% was spent on administrative and fundraising expenses.

GuideStar's Gold Seal of Transparency is earned by completing five questions around an organization's strategies, progress, and results, known as Charting Impact. Charting Impact encourages strategic thinking about how an organization intends to achieve its goals. The end result is a report that lets nonprofits share concise, detailed information about plans and progress with key stakeholders, including the public. This data is provided directly by nonprofits to GuideStar via their Nonprofit Profile.
