

badasskit

Client Served

07/15/2022

I was a writer in the 2019 class of fellows and being the the DGF community has been life changing. I was able to learn about the craft, the industry, and to build friendships that will last a lifetime.

My stories center and uplift queer and trans people of color and through the course of my fellowship, I felt very supported in telling my stories on my own terms, while also building my story telling skills.

I'm forever grateful for the experience.