Contribute to improving nutritional status for school-going children in Kenya

INPUTS
- Diverse ingredients
- Smart logistics
- Central kitchens and adapted rural models
- Tap2Eat technology
- Technical assistance to the national government
- Mapping school feeding partners

OUTPUTS
- Nutritious school lunches for children
- Accountable tracking system
- Government convenes policy workshops to plan for a sustainable implementation framework
- Established school feeding coalition

OUTCOMES
- Increased dietary diversity intake
- Increased enrollment/registration, ability to learn, attendance and retention
- Improved school achievement, progression and completion
- National government develops school feeding policy documents

IMPACT
- Contribute to improved educational attainment for school-going children in Kenya
- Contribute to government of Kenya codifying school feeding as a public good

Theory of Change