In 2014, Represent.Us Education Fund made grants to Represent.Us to support public education activities and dedicated cross-partisan outreach activities. These public education activities included 34 new money-in-politics educational multimedia projects, garnering more than 1.5 million YouTube views in 2014. RUEF developed and delivered a multi-channel public education program explaining complex money in politics issues. RUEF grants also supported grassroots organizing efforts to increase public awareness of money-in-politics corruption. This includes the Represent.Us national volunteer program, which provides educational materials, tools, resources, online discussion forums and monthly volunteer conference calls aimed at moving volunteers up a "ladder of engagement" - a structured leadership training program. Grant funds also enabled the deployment of staff, volunteers and interns to community events and conferences across the country.
