Q1
Please provide feedback on the locations we cycled this year for the training rides. (Wednesday and Weekends)
I thought they were challenging but fun. If anything I would hope for smoother roads but either way I had fun.

Q2
Please provide feedback on the special rides we participated in this year. Please list your favorite and least favorite and why. (LBJ 100, Battle of Flowers Parade, Fiesta Wildflower Ride, The Chesapeake Challenge, MS Ride to the River and Tour De Cure)
I got to ride the bike MS and tour de cure. I loved the MS ride and was pretty disappointed in the tour de cure. Mainly because I felt almost punished because I rode the 100 mile route. When I got back it was a ghost town. I almost didn't get food. I do want to try some of the other ones. Especially the wildflower ride and the Chesapeake challenge.

Please provide feedback on the distance options offered for weekly rides and training rides.
I love the longer training distances. I feel I get to really stretch my legs out and challenge myself.

hands down the Chesapeake challenge was the best. the battle of flowers parade was pretty cool too! lest fav: hmm they were all good in one way or another if I had to pick one, I would say MS Ride to the river because of the heat and hills... but it was challenging and fun.

Please provide feedback on the distance options offered for weekly rides and training rides.
I liked the distance options... when we rode the roads the advanced group rode on hwy 46... I did not like that so I did not ride with them. Hwy 46 is SCARRY on a trike.

I really can't think of any way to improve the ride anymore. I love the camaraderie, and the way that OC makes me feel like part of a family. Elizabeth and Jennifer are awesome and motivate me to do things that I would have never dreamed possible (like riding 63 miles for the Tour De Cure). I would have never imagined doing anything even close to that.

There's a ride in Louisiana called the Cycle Zydeco. It appears to be a VERY relaxed pace kind of thing with ample opportunities to enjoy the local Cajun food and entertainment. I'd love to do that one. it is scheduled for April 4-8 2018. The web site address to follow. https://www.cyclezydeco.org/
