Dear Greg,

Thank you for submitting information to the BBB Charity Accountability Program. I am pleased to provide you with a copy of our preliminary report that indicates that Ace in the Hole Foundation meets all Better Business Bureau Standards for Charity Accountability.

Please review the enclosed draft report of Ace in the Hole Foundation for factual accuracy. Please note that financial information has been taken from your organization's audited financials and/or your IRS Form 990.

Should we not hear from you by October 23rd we will assume that the report is acceptable and will make it available to the public.

We wish to call your attention to the updated Disclosure Requirements for Solicitation of Charitable Contributions Pursuant to New York State Executive Law § 174-b as published by the Office of the Attorney General/Charities Bureau in August 2019. The document describing these changes can be viewed here.

As noted in the BBB Standards Implementation Guide, BBB Standard 1 calls for a charity's board of directors to "ensure that the charity complies with applicable government charity regulation." We are alerting charities that work with us about this NYS regulatory update and the need to come into full compliance on a timely basis.

Please review the Charities Bureau update concerning Disclosure Requirements and plan accordingly with your fundraising solicitations. Thank you!

We appreciate your participation in the BBB Charity Accountability Program. If you have any questions, please contact your Charity Analyst. If unable to reach them, you can reach me at 212-358-6763 or e-mail me at mmcguinness@newyork.bbb.org.

Sincerely,

Start With Trust™
