

"You have a wonderful film here, Joe. Congratulations!"

Mark Jonathan Harris, 3-Time Oscar Winner / Best Documentary

"Pershing's Paths of Glory is well-cast, elegantly photographed — and shared historical details and archival images I was experiencing for the first time."

Chas Henry, News Anchor / National Security Correspondent

"Your Pershing film was excellent. We really appreciated it and learned so much about Pershing."

David V. Schulz, White House Fellow

"You use historical vignettes and contemporary responses to communicate Pershing's influence, telling a story of character, leadership, and responsibility."

Jack Lichtenstein, Col. U.S. Army (Ret) / Bronze Star, Gulf War / National Security Consultant

"I think you captured a good way to tell the story of the war, the story of Pershing, and the story of how it impacts young people."

Dan Dayton, Executive Director, World War I Centennial Commission

"Outstanding in every respect. Poe is great. The flow is great. The photography is wonderful. I think you've got something really good here. I love it. This is just excellent."

Gordon Cohn, Author & Historian

"Finished watching the film and it was fantastic. I cried. Found it incredibly touching. This man touched something that spanned generations and countries."

Julia Newman, Film Composer

"It is wonderful to get to know a great hero like General Pershing, thanks to your meticulous work."

Mine Oncuer, Graphic Designer

"Very nice, Joe. Some moments were quite touching."

Ray Coen, Marketing Consultant

"I come from a military family and I know my parents would appreciate your portrayal of Black Jack!"

Stephen Hens, Kiddkolor

"I was impressed by the passion expressed by the characters for General Pershing and the opportunity to follow in his footsteps. I wanted to learn more about them."

Myrna Rosales, Marketing Student

“A wonderful bit of storytelling. Beautifully done! The words Duty, Honor and Sacrifice are qualities at the very core of Pershing's character. Your film does a terrific job at teaching this, and how these people and details are relevant to young people today.”

David Boule, Author

“Just watched. This is great - really compelling and well produced.”

Brad Chase, Public Relations

“I want to start off with how impressive the quality of this production is. Well done! I've shown the film to my mother - she was impressed. “

David Poe, Pershing Historian

“It is fantastic! The narrative flows extremely well and you care about the young men and women as they follow the path and the story builds on itself.”

Mike Lakusta, EthniFacts/Nielsen

“The film was well-made, inter-mixing archival footage and interviews seamlessly. We learned about General Pershing via the young people who continue his legacy. The song ‘Three Bells’ sung by the Pershing Angel in the film was a beautiful, fitting conclusion.”

Pam Markovitz, Film Benefactor
