Q4 What were the most positive aspects of Virtual Camp Hobé for your child(ren) and your family?

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Both kids really enjoyed the crafts	7/5/2020 8:56 AM
2	I loved how they were still able to participate in activities, even though it was virtual! Loved all the activities for Day Camp, and the way they were laid out in the Camp-in-a-Box.	6/20/2020 7:14 PM
3	Time to be part of a familiar group, away from whatever our usual has been. I loved having them see friends and counselors from the past, and have so many different activities!	6/20/2020 2:35 PM

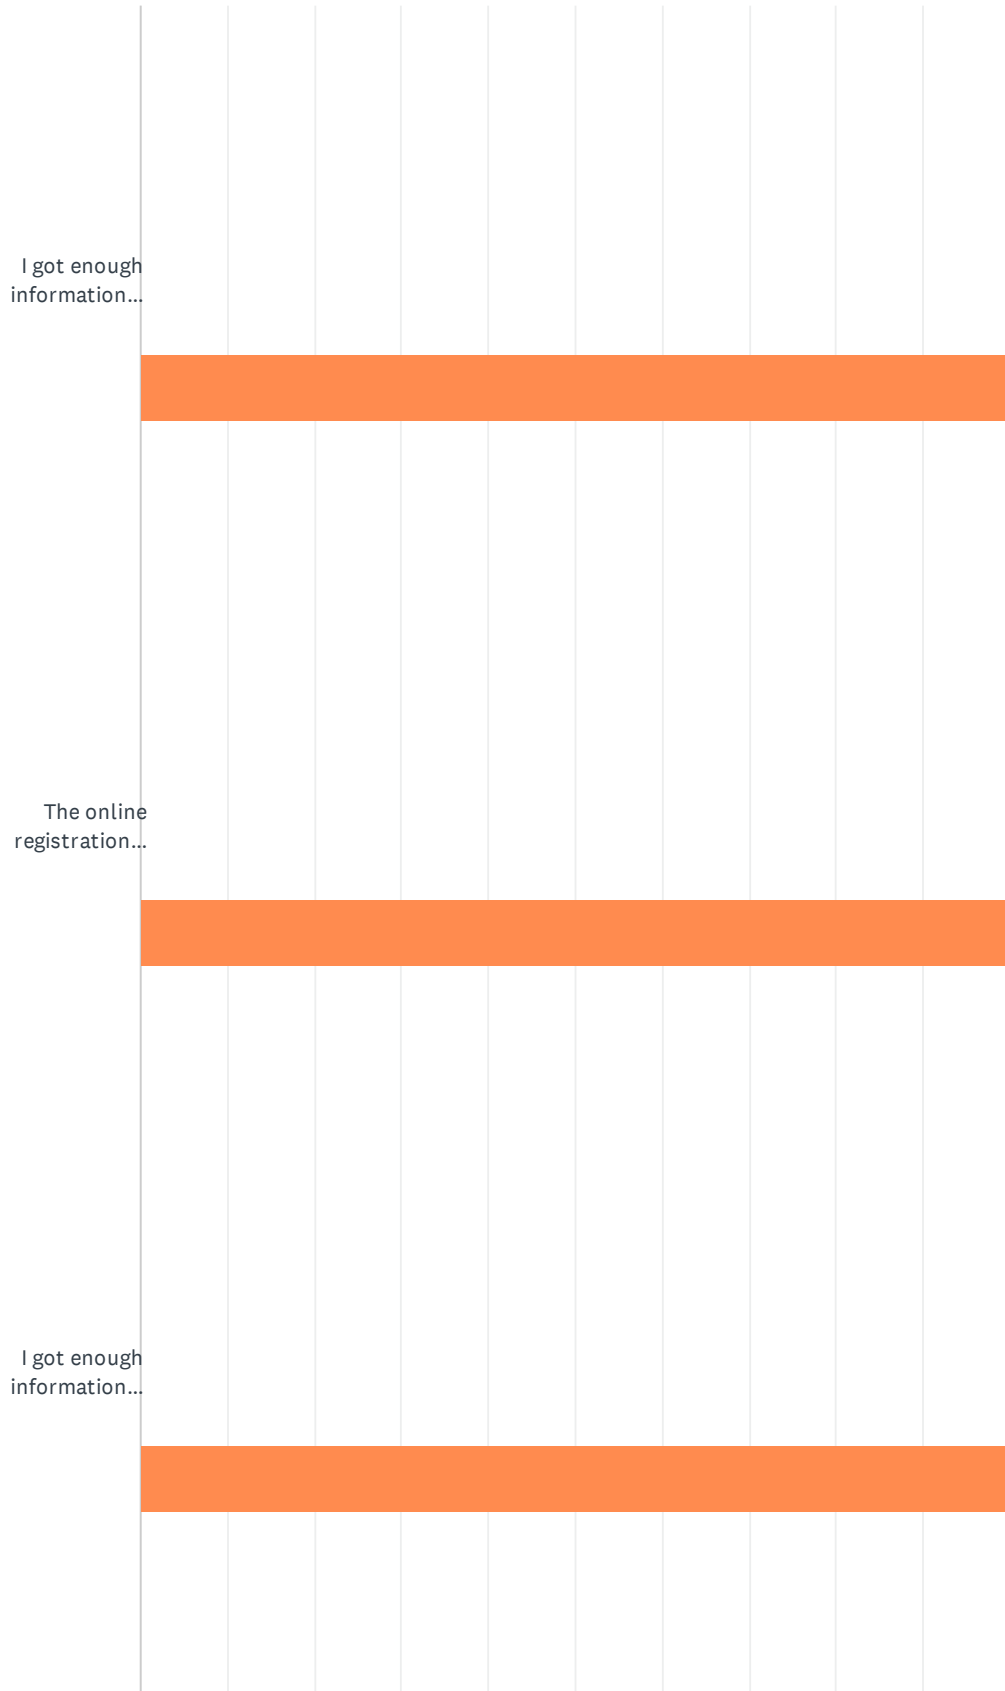

Q5 What would you like to see changed (or added or deleted) for any future Virtual programs?

1	Braxton disliked the yoga. We aren't really sure why. Maybe his age? Or just him?	7/5/2020 8:56 AM
2	When we were able to tune into Campfire, it was fun to watch, however, it was difficult to be able to tune in each night, and I think my kids were a little "camped out" by that time, as they had become disengaged after their daily session. And as a parent, I felt bad not having them tune in.	6/20/2020 7:14 PM
3	Depending on how many are in a group, if possible request (or expect) feedback from each camper. It was easy for them to tune out or leave the room and do their own thing, but if they were expected to report back on something or give their experience/story/opinion on something that would help engagement.	6/20/2020 2:35 PM
