Q14
What did you like about the experience?

As a non-native speaker, the editing service helped my language a lot!

Q15

What, if anything, did you dislike?

1. Maybe lack some scientific input (e.g. more about language editing). I hope to get more input about, how to present the science in a more logic, more impactful way.
 2. my discipline is bioinformatics, I feel like there were few editor with this background. So the editing I get lack some professional suggestions from this part.

Did the JEDI Award meet your expectations?

Q17

For next year, would you keep the JEDI Award the same or modify it?

Modify it,

How would you modify it (please describe how - i.e. fewer awards but more time per person?):

If possible, is there a way to recruit some senior scientist/professors/editors as mentors for JEDI awardee who is at the starting stage of their career? I personally felt like lack of such mentor who can give career advices like 'how to manage lab', 'How to define unique research niche' etc.

Q13

What is the current status of your edited paper or proposal? (If published, please add a citation)

It is currently "In Process" at a journal! We submitted it and hope for the best! :)

Q14

What did you like about the experience?

I liked directly interacting with my JEDI mentor, and being able to ask her questions that may come across as silly. It was an extremely non-judgemental space, and I did feel like I could ask her simple questions without feeling foolish. I also appreciated that even applying for the award motivated me to wrap up my manuscript so it was ready to be edited.

Q15

What, if anything, did you dislike?

Nothing, it was wonderful! I recommended a friend apply (look out for another Nebraska Student soon!)

Q13

What is the current status of your edited paper or proposal? (If published, please add a citation)

It is just barely inside the fundable range for discretionary funding from the Program Officers. Instead of waiting the year to know, I am beginning to revise it to resubmit.

Q14

What did you like about the experience?

I got direct advice about problems with the impact statement.

Q15

What, if anything, did you dislike?

The editor helped me find the weaknesses in my proposal, which was great. I needed the honest feedback. It would have been helpful if they had more suggestions for me to improve the weaknesses, given what I data and logic I had on hand.

Q13

What is the current status of your edited paper or proposal? (If published, please add a citation) published at

<https://www.longdom.org/abstract/breeding-for-drought-tolerance-by-monitoring-chlorophyll-content-81021.html>

Citation: Monteoliva MI, Guzzo MC, Posada GA (2021) Breeding for Drought Tolerance by Monitoring Chlorophyll Content. Gene Technol. 10:165.

Q14

What did you like about the experience?

the fast communication with the editor and the great quality feedback I got.

In my previous experiences with translators the feedback was not easy (since they do not have science and editing experience) and the final result wasn't good enough. I am not able to afford editing services at all in my home country.

Q15

What, if anything, did you dislike?

nothing

Q16

Exceeded expectations

Did the JEDI Award meet your expectations?

Q17

The same

For next year, would you keep the JEDI Award the same or modify it?

Q18

Do you have any other comments?

none

Congrats! you are doing great and it's an example for other people

Q1 Twitter

How did you hear about LSEF JEDI Awards

Q2
How or where should we advertise to ensure that we're reaching those who would benefit most from this program?

In addition to social medial I would recommend contacting HBCUs and other scientific/educational institutions supporting minorities

Q3 Postdoctoral Fellow

What was your position when you received the award?

Q4 Postdoctoral Fellow

What is your current position?

Q5 No

Q13

What is the current status of your edited paper or proposal? (If published, please add a citation)

Sent to the study section

Q14

What did you like about the experience?

That I was explained clearly how to structure several parts of the grant to increase clarity and please reviewers.

Q15

What, if anything, did you dislike?

It was not my case because I had additional support from Faculties working in the field to give a more specific twist regarding the science. However, I can imagine that for some people that do not have access to experts in the field, it would be nice to also have more Scientific input regarding how to make the science more appealing.

Q16

Exceeded expectations

Did the JEDI Award meet your expectations?

Q17

For next year, would you keep the JEDI Award the same or modify it?

Modify it,

How would you modify it (please describe how - i.e. fewer awards but more time per person?):

Just what I mentioned above about science. But maybe a difficult task
