Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

Change the World" is another frequently repeated axiom of our ministry.

We serve the pastoral community because we know that healthier pastors lead stronger churches that lead to a better community. To be deemed successful our programs must bless and prosper a city (Jeremiah 29:7), bringing joy to its inhabitants (Proverbs 11:10).

relationships, health and finances.

2. Professional Life: The Organization helps leaders think through their leadership philosophy, their primary role and responsibilities, the mission and vision of their ministry, major projects, priorities and goals. Further, the Organization seeks to assist leaders in skill development and methodology. Ultimately, the Organization strives to help leaders achieve results in the aforementioned areas.

The Organization's consulting activities are done with churches who are working through issues and conflict or are creating a Godly culture to minister. The Organization's support in this area includes activities such as leadership retreats, mediations and team building activities.

The Organization's crisis care activities are provided whenever there is an event that impacts the pastor and the church from either inside or outside the church. In all cases, the Organization will seek to form a restoration plan for the individuals involved and a plan to help bring the church to a healthy culture. In the case of external activities like a natural disaster, the Organization comes alongside the pastors who are affected and provide for their needs.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

The Organization's top management official and top financial official each review the Form 990 prior to its filing with the IRS. A copy of the final Form 990 is also provided to the voting members of the Organization's governing body prior to its filing with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

The Organization's conflict of interest policy is distributed to each member of the Organization's governing body, its officers and its key employees on an annual basis. Each such individual provides an annual disclosure statement indicating that they have received, read, understood and agreed to comply with the policy, certifying that: (1) they have no relationships or interests that present a conflict of interest, (2) they have one or more conflicts of interest that have been fully disclosed as required by the policy and have been properly administered in conformity with the policy, or (3) they have previously undisclosed conflicts of interest and disclosing the details of such conflicts. Any disclosure statements with previously undisclosed conflicts of interest are forwarded to appropriate Organization officials to take appropriate actions as required by the policy.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The Organization's Board of Directors reviews and approves the compensation levels of all officers and key employees. The deliberations and decisions
