Our Beginnings

The Tegaru Disaster Relief Fund (TDRF) is a U.S. charitable 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. The organization was founded in 2018 by a group of professional diaspora Tigrayans in response to an increase in Tigrayan displacement from various parts of Ethiopia. TDRF got to work in 2018, providing immediate relief and support to families being uprooted because of ethnic conflict and political violence across different Ethiopian regions. To be effective, TDRF mobilized efforts to collaborate with stakeholders on the ground in Tigray, while partnering with various organizations, such as the Bureau of Labor and Social Affairs of Tigray and Keradion Elders Support Association. Unfortunately, our work has only become more urgent since the war erupted on November 4, 2020.

Transforming TDRF

As part of capacity building and revitalizing the organization, TDRF commissioned a redesign of the organization’s logo and the launching of an official website in 2021. Additionally, the founding Board of Directors increased the number of board members to 15 from 11, recruiting 12 new members in June 2021 through a public announcement. The TDRF strategic plan serves to create an actionable outline grounded in our deep commitment to saving lives and inspiring generations in Tigray. Through an organizational assessment conducted in late 2021, we identified strengths and opportunities for growth in several areas of organizational activities. This strategic plan builds on the core values and commitment to humanitarian relief and development assistance central to our operations and mission with a clearly defined set of goals and actions that will guide our efforts over the next three years (2022-2025).

Strategic Planning Process

The TDRF strategic planning process was completed over a six-month period. Beginning in July 2021, the Executive Director assigned members of the Executive Team the task of advancing the planning process as a subcommittee assignment. The subcommittee lead the Board of Directors in several brainstorming sessions to revise and determine the mission, vision and values key to TDRF. During the next stage of planning process, the subcommittee conducted a comprehensive assessment using the SWOT (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats) analysis as a framework to evaluate the organization’s position and identify focus areas.

The SWOT analysis assessed internal and external factors, as well as current and future potential, for the organization. First, the current and past Board of Directors completed an open-ended survey to describe the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats. A thematic content analysis of the qualitative survey responses was conducted to summarize about eight to ten themes under each area under SWOTs. Second, the current Board of Directors completed a poll to rank the identified themes by priority/impact (high or low) to the organization’s work and level of effort (high or low) for completion of the work. Next seven strategic planning areas were identified for goal-setting, giving rise to ten strategic goals. Finally, through review of historical data on TDRF’s performance and discussions with the Board of Directors, the subcommittee developed specific, measurable actions (objectives) for each goal.

Accountability and Reporting

Though the TDRF executive leadership team is responsible for developing and implementing the strategic plan, accountability and reporting measures will be built into specific action plans and the TDRF Annual Report. This will include a standardized and transparent model for gathering, analyzing, and reporting data through an annual progress report on each goal.
