FY 2022 Annual Report

Through your partnership and support, we've been laying the groundwork to end hunger for future generations. As need for our services grew 30-40% this Spring, I was comforted to know that we were on this road together.

Together, we delivered more groceries to individuals in the Austin community, adding organic fresh produce to the menu while supporting local farmers and BIPOC food vendors. To help connect even more people to money saving benefits, our Social Services team added walk-in hours to our Chicago and Oak Park offices. We also welcomed additional food rescue partners, increasing our ability to address problems of food waste and food insecurity by redistributing surplus food.

To serve families in our Drive-Thru Food Pantry more quickly and efficiently, we reconfigured and refreshed the parking lot at First United Church of Oak Park. New partnerships with Grace Episcopal Church and St. Catherine-St. Lucy Parish allowed us to increase our food storage and distribution capabilities.

At our core, this work is about the people we serve. This year we more intentionally honored the expertise of people with lived experience with hunger, ensuring they had a seat at the table to develop policies and programs that directly impact their lives. Our Client Advisory Council (CAC) worked with Northwestern University to help develop a Chicago-wide nutrition security solution. And Tracey Showers, a founding member of our CAC, helped to impact national policy with her personal testimony ahead of the White House Conference on Hunger, Nutrition, and Health – which she then attended this Fall.

As we look ahead, I am grateful that together, we are forging a more equitable food system in our community.

With gratitude always,

Michele Zurakowski, PhD, Chief Executive Officer

"Our new partnerships with Growing Home, Dion's Chicago Dream, and Forty Acres allow us to offer Home Delivery program participants organic fresh produce each month plus additional fresh produce deliveries for larger households. People love having a mix of seasonal items that change each month."
—Daisy Gabriel, Beyond Hunger Program Coordinator

With your support we're extending and deepening the impact of our programs in our community. We're helping more families. We're providing more nutritious food. We're connecting more individuals with more money-saving benefits. And we are reaching more individuals through nutrition and health education to help combat chronic illness.

Individuals served in Despensa program.

We served 615 more newly immigrated children, parents, and older adults through the Despensa program.

3481

Individuals served in Home Delivery program.

We delivered groceries to 708 additional homebound individuals in our community.

6287

Individuals who received Nutrition Education.

We reached 1195 more people last year through nutrition and health programming.

95%

Percentage of food that is low in sodium and trans fats, and high in fiber.

95% of the food we provide is nutritionally dense. 6% more than last year.

$220

"I have always felt the need to do something for others. I was introduced to Beyond Hunger through Cub Scouts in elementary school and loved being able to help people on a bigger scale. When I started Spoke Cafe, I knew I wanted it to contribute to charity and Beyond Hunger was the perfect choice. I really like to help people in my community."

-Alec Olsen, Spoke Cafe

Spoke Cafe is a mobile bike nitro-brew coffee cafe founded and operated by Alec Olsen.

Volunteer Honor Roll

Volunteers are the real backbone of Beyond Hunger. Beloved by clients and staff alike, volunteers are admired for their selfless generosity. Space restrictions limit this list to those who served over 25 hours, but we are grateful for all those who served, whether one hour or one hundred. Hours listed here are for FY2022 service only.

Beyond Hunger has signed the Good Food Purchasing Pledge. We are committed to purchasing food that creates a transparent and equitable food system built on principles of social justice and racial equity and rooted in five core values: local economies, health, valued workforce, animal welfare, and environmental sustainability. We are proud and grateful to partner with these organizations as part of that pledge.

"I feel like this is my calling to be part of this team. And I have been truly blessed to become a Health Ambassador."

-Sandra D. Murphy, Health Ambassador

Health Ambassadors participate in a 6-week Beyond Hunger certification course focused on nutrition education, cooking skills, and diabetes management. After graduation they host healthy eating and diabetes management workshops as a dynamic tool to unite people of all ages. Their outreach will help to improve health outcomes and increase social connectedness in our community.
