Climate Action Education for All
A Global Community of Support

Climate change is real. All around the world where the patterns are changing and affecting people, animals and the environment. To tackle this growing crisis we have to take action. We have to change mindsets.

Dr. Jane Goodall
Supporter Climate Action Project
A GLOBAL COMMUNITY OF SUPPORT.

I love to participate and that the students perceive that many young people just like them participate in the same actions and also have the intention that caring for the planet is a reality.

Bertha Alicia Sayeg Garza
Educator, Mexico
A GLOBAL COMMUNITY OF SUPPORT.

It was an amazing experience for the teacher and the students. The participation in this global community made us feel empowered and we appreciated the small yet essential changes in our everyday life we can all do to protect our planet.

Maria Panousiadou
Educator, Greece
A GLOBAL COMMUNITY OF SUPPORT.

We need youth’s creativity to repair our planet. We need students to invent and to innovate – to think beyond where we are now and to be optimist about our future.

HRM Prince William
Honorary Speaker, Climate Action Day 2021
A GLOBAL COMMUNITY OF SUPPORT.

It has been life-changing for many of my students and their families. I found that absolutely thrilling.

Van Hoang Thi
Educator Vietnam
A GLOBAL COMMUNITY OF SUPPORT.

Our Climate Action Schools provide something for everyone. It allows our students to be involved in a front-and-center issue and have meaningful interaction and dialogue and be part of it, no matter what their ability level is.

Dr. Janet Fike
Superintendent of Schools, New Jersey