

We connect people to nature through lifelong learning and service, inspiring communities to care for each other and the planet.

Community

We improve the quality-of-life in our community through meaningful partnerships and impactful programs.

Learning

We collaborate with partners to provide nature-based education programs for children, youth and families throughout our community.

Service

We coordinate with partners to provide individuals, groups and families with volunteer stewardship opportunities at local parks and trails.

Discover. Experience. Connect.
