

This is a great community organization that assist people with utilities among other needs. They are not only helpful but friendly too.

A great place they help a lot of people

They are going to help me when no one else would. .

Kind souls supporting the local community.

Wonderful establishment kind loving people doing God's work

The ladies there are very nice and just all the people are very understanding and loving

My grandfather had his services there it was very nice

They embrace all that come. Also do their best to help the community with various programs.

I find them very caring and passionate about there work

Friendly staff and volunteers. Very willing to help people.

Great help for those in NEED a various things..especially food

How is willing to assist assist you with help I always trying to find out what is the best way for you to go to get help
