

The strategic plan at Home of Hope India is both simple and bold.

We pledge to build as many homes for marginalized girls in India each year as possible. This entirely depends on donations, which continue to rise every year. With 25 Homes of Hope either built or under construction in 15 years, we have shown remarkable results. We will do even more in the future.