Happy New Year and many blessings to you,

This year, let's make the DREAM our reality. The urgency is NOW!

Wishing you health, happiness, peace, and togetherness in the new year of 2021.

We have a dream. It is the same dream that Dr. King declared in 1963. May this year be the year that we take his dream to heart and make it a reality. Dr. King said, "I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men and women are created equal.'"

Can democracy survive in America? Martin Luther King remarked in 1967: "We are facing turbulent times in the United States. Our system is in a state of crisis. It needs to be restructured. I believe that democracy is the only system worth fighting for."

The past twelve months have been one of the most tumultuous in US Supreme Court history. February 12, 1964, was the day that the Civil Rights Act of 1964 was signed into law by President Lyndon B. Johnson, making it illegal to discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

Celebrate MLK Day and January 20th with a new beginning of unity, inclusion, and joy, especially during tough times.

Let us not wallow in the valley of despair, I say to you today, my friends. And so even though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still have a dream. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream.

I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men and women are created equal.'

STAY SAFE! WEAR A MASK!

Toss it in your car and hand them an emergency kit: Fill a bag with snacks, socks and a bottle of water. Have a blanket and a jacket on hand. Often it's the little things we do that have the greatest impact.

Can we live in peace? Will we be able to work together? Can we continue to make progress? I believe that we can. I believe that we will. And I hope that we will.

Delivered before a crowd of more than 250,000 people who had gathered on the National Mall in Washington D.C, "I Have a Dream" by the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr. is one of the most famous speeches in history. Dr. King dreamt of freedom, unity, and equality for all people. He believed that "we must allow creativity and / or imagination and dreams to take the place of fear."
