Sparky Harlan
Chief Executive Officer
Bill Wilson Center
3490 The Alameda
Santa Clara, CA 95050

Dear Ms. Sparky Harlan:

It is our great pleasure to inform you that the Council on Accreditation (COA) has approved the accreditation of Bill Wilson Center through July 31, 2023. Let me again say how significant this achievement is! It represents the fulfillment of countless hours of hard work and the dedication of many people—most notably your staff and the members of your board and/or leadership. Please extend my congratulations to them.

This formal notification includes a list of programs and services for which Bill Wilson Center is accredited, as well as your Final Accreditation Report (FAR). A plaque attesting to your agency's accredited status will be sent to you shortly.

Your Final Accreditation Report (FAR) is an important and incredibly valuable document. It contains the observations and recommendations of your Peer Reviewer colleagues based on your self-study and site visit. In essence, the FAR provides a unique view of your organization as seen through the eyes of highly experienced professionals. In it you will find a copy of the full accreditation ratings for all Purpose, Core, and Practice standards, identifying the Fundamental Practice standards. It may also contain any noted organizational strengths and areas for opportunities.

Please refer to the Promotional Tool Kit web page to find resources that can assist you with leveraging your organization's COA accreditation to internal and external stakeholders.

Public: <http://coanet.org/accreditation/public-agency-accreditation/promote-your-accreditation/>

Canadian: <http://coanet.org/accreditation/canadian-organisation-accreditation/promote-your-accreditation/>

At the very least, however, we recommend that you provide relevant excerpts to those members of your staff who are directly responsible for the respective findings. Should you do so, please explain that the report is intended to be constructive, and that the goal is to provide specific, tangible examples of how they can make your organization even stronger and even better.

Having said that, you should know that those ratings for which you did not demonstrate implementation should be addressed through your PQI process.

Even though they did not require correction in order to achieve accreditation, they will be made a part of your file and reviewed during your next accreditation cycle. Remember, COA accreditation is not an end in and of itself. Rather, it is a process by which your organization can consistently strive for and achieve new levels of excellence.

Finally, let me say that your relationship with COA does not end with this letter. Ours is a partnership. As such, I would ask that you feel free to share with me your ideas and concerns. Additionally, please feel free to contact Tobi Murch, Director of Volunteer Engagement, either by email at tmurch@coanet.org or by telephone at 212-797-3000, extension 272, if you have any questions. Together we can enrich the lives of children, individuals, and families in need everywhere.

We are proud to be associated with you and your colleagues. We wish you the very best in your continuing service to persons in your community. That is the power of accreditation.

Sincerely,

Organizational Strengths

Bill Wilson Center
Organization ID# 10873

Administrative and Management Standards

Ethical Practice (ETH), Financial Management (FIN), Governance (GOV) or Administration & Management (AM) (for Public State Systems), Human Resources (HR), Performance and Quality Improvement (PQI), Risk Prevention and Management (RPM)

- ETH The organization consistently demonstrates strong ethical practices, which has solidified their excellent reputation and has established strong public trust.
- FIN The organization demonstrates sound financial management practices that follow all legal and regulatory mandates. Audit findings for the past two years have shown no concerns or violations.
- GOV The board members are visionary in seeking the sustainability and growth of the organization. They are in-tune with the population served and seek to represent their community well. They are dedicated to the work. They have a strong, effective working relationship with the CEO and other key staff.
- HR Strong Human Resource practices and procedures are in place. They are understood and followed by the staff of the organization. The long-term, experienced Human Resource leadership has the full support of the CEO.
- PQI The Performance and Quality Improvement (PQI) plan and processes encourage the organization to use data to identify areas of needed improvement and implement improvement plans in support of achieving performance targets, program goals, client satisfaction, and positive client outcomes. The PQI Director is versed in and committed to the utilization of data, metrics, and analytics to make decisions and improvements in all service areas. All staff members who were interviewed spoke confidently and highly of the organization's PQI process and their own input into that process.
- RPM The organization has a comprehensive risk prevention and management plan, policy, and processes in place that are realistic and aim to protect the organization against threats. The entire leadership sets a proactive tone by creating a culture that identifies risk, learns from challenges, and confronts risk in a planned and proactive manner.

Service Delivery Administration Standards

Administrative and Service Environment (ASE), Behavior Support and Management (BSM), Client Rights (CR), Training and Supervision (TS)

- ASE The organization's practice reflects the significant and positive impact that accessibility, health, and safety have on its productivity. The policy and practice address explicitly how accessibility, emergency and disaster response preparedness, and health and physical safety apply to all staff, service locations, and programs.
- BSM The culture and structure promote a strength-based, positive approach to behavior management. This culture is embraced by an effective training component and ongoing monitoring by supervisors.
- CR The organization demonstrates a high regard for the rights and dignity of those served.
- TS The organization has invested wisely in the training function. There is a highly competent training manager who monitors and manages the organization's training program. The organization assesses staff needs on an ongoing basis and responds with instruction to address the learning need. Structured supervision practices are guided by clear policy and procedures that provide clear direction for supervision practices. Supervisor workloads are monitored on an ongoing basis by the program leadership.

Service Standards

- AS Guided by a clearly defined program philosophy and purpose, the adoption program provides attention and support to each person who is involved in the adoption process. The experienced program leadership and highly qualified, compassionate staff define the integrity of the adoption services provided.
- CM The organization plans, secures, coordinates, monitors, and advocates for unified goals and services with organizations and personnel on behalf of the individuals served. The case management services are provided by a highly committed and dedicated staff team. Service users who were interviewed spoke very positively about the services and extended their gratitude for the non-judgmental and caring services they received.
- CSE The organization takes a strength-based, trauma-informed approach to those they serve. Innovation is evident as the organization has effectively expanded its service array to meet unique needs. The staff members are very dedicated and focused on improving the overall functioning of the individuals served.
- FKC This program has a strong structure, as well as policies, procedures, and practices that guide service delivery. The foster care staff members are passionate and mission driven. They demonstrate ownership of the work and services they provide.

- HSCCL The facilities are well maintained and very homelike. The staff members are passionate and invested in their work. They consistently exceed expectations. The case notes are comprehensive and well-written. The service recipients are well supported to achieve and maintain stable housing.
- MHSU The staff members are well trained, well supervised, and passionate about the work they do. Safety plans are comprehensive and individually focused. The organization collaborates extremely well with key community partners.
- OS The outreach services meet the service recipients' basic needs and connect them to community services in an environment that is safe, secure, comfortable, and non-stigmatizing. Provisions include a secure courtyard play and meeting area, food, clothes, toiletries, laundry, showers, job search facilities, and medical services.
- SH The shelter services provide food, clothing, temporary shelter, and other services to youth experiencing homelessness. The organization works hard to successfully meet best practices and meet the needs of the service recipients.
- YIL These services help youth to develop life skills and competencies, achieve educational and financial growth goals, and establish healthy, supportive adult and peer relationships. The various properties are in appropriately located neighborhoods and deliberately look non-institutional. The youth receive support from the organization.

AREAS FOR OPPORTUNITIES

The following ratings have not been fully implemented and we ask that you address them through your PQI process. Even though these standards did not require correction in order to achieve accreditation, they will be made a part of your file and reviewed during your next accreditation cycle. We request that you begin demonstrating implementation on all of the below standards before your next accreditation cycle.

Standard Code	Rating	Peer Team Report
GOV 6.02	3	The CEO Report in the Governing Body minutes does not consistently discuss new policy or changes in existing policy.
HR 7.01	3	Many personnel files did not include interview notes from the employment interview.
YIL 7.03	3	Youth in this program are permitted to have guests; however, overnight guests are not permitted per organization policy.
