PET International, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements

Note A. Summary of significant accounting policies

Mission Statement

PET International seeks to reflect the love of Jesus Christ by bringing mobility and dignity to those in developing countries who are unable to walk.

Nature of Organization

PET (Personal Energy Transportation) International, Inc. is a faith-based world-wide nonprofit organization powered by volunteers. The organization promotes the PET vehicle, assists the PET production sites, and coordinates PET shipments to distribution partners.

Director of Operations

This staff position is the only paid one. But the D of O operates as a missionary and most of his salary is provided by his personal supporters. PET International, Inc. pays only a small monthly stipend.

Membership Dues

These dues are only paid to be a part of TECH. At TECH meetings we can meet with other health agencies and medical professionals to promote the availability of the PET vehicle to be included in their health/mission work around the world.

Basis of Accounting and Financial Statement Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared using accrual basis accounting. Accrual accounting was used starting this fiscal year to be in a better position for growth. Temporarily Restricted Assets are for Director of Operations support, Affiliate startup grant, and PET Zambia re-supply shipment.

Income Taxes

The organization is a not-for-profit organization that is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code and classified by the Internal Revenue Service as other than a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) and qualifies for deductible contributions as provided in Section 170(b)(1)(a)(vi).

Functional Expenses

The costs of providing the various programs and activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the support services and programs benefited.

Contribution and Grants

The organization records contributions and grants when they are received. All contributions and grants are considered available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor or grantor.
